About (Owner's description): Oubaai Hotel Golf and Spa is perfectly located between the Indian Ocean and the majestic Outeniqua Mountains in Herolds Bay, George, on the Garden Route.

Located in an area renowned for its indigenous and lush forests, nature reserves and unspoilt beaches whilst also only being a few minutes away from George Airport and the central of George,, Oubaai is your bucket list destination.

The resort features 100 modern and stylish rooms and suites all fitted with the latest communication and entertainment technology, luxury amenities and spacious en-suite bathrooms with glass-enclosed rain showers and separate deluxe baths. Selected rooms and suites also boast golf course views with the ocean as the backdrop. The Presidential Suite, Executive Suites and Junior Suites are designed and furnished to accommodate the more discerning traveller.

All food palates, whether conservative or daring, are catered for with a selection of four restaurants on the resort grounds. Cucina, Waterside Grill, Herold's and The Clubhouse each offering a unique and personal dining experience.

Oubaai Hotel Golf & Spa is proud to be the first Ernie Els signature golf course in South Africa.

The hotel offers guests a range of first-class services and facilities, including the award winning Freesia Spa, tennis courts, a kids' club, swimming pools, 8km walking trail, concierge services, babysitting by prior arrangement, 24-hour room service, a business centre, wireless Internet access in public areas and the village market.

Indulge in a picnic on the whale viewing deck and you might spot dolphins and whales frolicking in the Indian Ocean or take a stroll along Herolds Bay Beach and watch the sun set – the ultimate getaway at one of the ultimate luxury hotels in South Africa.
